

Nevin J. Mindlin

Nevin Mindlin is a public policy and community affairs consultant with thirty-five years' experience that includes twenty years executive experience in developing and implementing a range of policy initiatives. He is an experienced leader in strategic and organizational development and in knowledge management, and an accomplished author of articles on public policy, and a public speaker.

He served as Legislative Director for the Pennsylvania Bar Association; Director, Office of Policy Planning and Development at the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry; Executive Director, Labor Relations Committee, Pennsylvania House of Representatives – Republican Caucus Research Staff.

Mindlin attended Georgetown University; holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Goddard College, with a major in Philosophy and Psychology and a minor in Biblical Studies and Animal Ethology; and a Master of Arts Degree in Government, with a concentration in Urban Studies and Public Policy Analysis from Lehigh University.

Nevin is a current board member of Jewish Family Services and the Stewards of the Lower Susquehanna (RIVERKEEPER®); founding and de factor board member of Debt Watch Harrisburg; Founding member and Coordinator of Landmarks Neighborhood Organization; Founding member of Camp Curtin Community Neighbors United; and founding member, Covenant Community Corporation; and Past Board member and President of the Rabbi David L. Silver Yeshiva Academy.