

Rev. Willie L. Dixon

Since 2009, Rev. Willie L. Dixon has served as the pastor of the Wesley Union AME Zion Church, located in the Camp Curtin neighborhood of Harrisburg. During the course of his ministry, Rev. Dixon has served God's people in many capacities on the local, district and conference level.

In addition to serving his congregation, Pastor Dixon is a community and neighborhood leader and founding member of the Camp Curtin Community Neighbors United, a group of citizens working together to improve the living conditions of and service to the residents of the neighborhood. He opens his church for community meetings, participates in neighborhood clean ups, promotes community gardening and healthy lifestyles. He is working in partnership with Pinnacle Health System to create a neighborhood health clinic and has initiated youth programs. He believes that working together the Camp Curtin neighborhood can improve housing and eradicate blight and crime.

Rev. Dixon is a native of Newport News, Virginia, where he attended the public schools. During these formative years, Rev. Dixon was nurtured in the ways of Christ and is a life time member at Greater Walters A.M.E. Zion Church under the leadership of Rev. A. C. Littlejohn and Rev. E. M. Wilson. After graduating from Carver High School, he graduated from Norfolk State University (formerly Norfolk State College). Graduated from Boyce Bible College (Biblical studies) and St. Leo College (Christian Ministry).

Pastor Dixon's sincere desire in life is to serve God's people with his time, talents, and resources. His motto is....
"I've Come to Serve Not to be Served"
